

As an affected party part, I oppose the latest bifurcation filing by Rock Island Clean Line. You have twice before denied their request. I do not see where any of the facts have changed since those denials. Bifurcation would violate due process rights of those affected along the proposed route. I think that the rights of these affected parties far outweigh benefits of this private corporation's request.

Paul Swanson